NOTICE

The screening committee constituted by the college, has scrutinized the application forms for the post of Assistant Professor in the Department of English. Based on the rules formulated by the University of Delhi, the committee has calculated points for each applicant. The list prepared by the committee is being uploaded on the Website of Motilal Nehru College.

The applicants are requested to check their points in this list. Applicants claiming any discrepancy or clarification regarding the points given by the departmental screening committee may submit an application, personally or by post along with the relevant documents to college within seven days from the date of this notification.

The applicants should only send the application regarding the discrepancy in their points awarded based on the form filled by them against the original advertisement. This is not a notification for updating the point, on the basis of experience acquired or publication done after the last date of the filling of the application form.

The scrutiny of the application is for the purpose of selecting candidates for the interview only. The above scrutiny does not endorse the final eligibility of the candidate as regards his/her qualifications, experiences, publications, social category or any other claim. If at any stage, including post selection, the candidate is found to have made false declaration/submission, his/her candidature/appointment will be summarily rejected.
