Subject : Grant of Financial Assistance out of Vice-Chancellor's Student Fund for the Academic year 2014-15.

Dear Sir/ Madam,

The applications from the poor deserving students of your Faculty/ Departments/College, who have passed the Annual Examination of 2014 of Delhi University and belonging to BPL (Below Poverty Line) & PWD Students only are invited in the prescribed form (specimen enclosed) for the grant of Financial Assistance out of the "Vice-Chancellor's Student Fund" for the academic year 2014-15.

I request you to kindly send the application form of only those students who are eligible for the grant of Financial Assistance according to the revised rules of the Vice-Chancellor's Student Fund approved by the Committee at its meeting held on 20-08-2014 (Copy enclosed) with your specific recommendations, so as to reach this office latest by the 30-11-2014.

It may kindly be ensured that the application forms of regular bonafide students should be submitted by the candidate in the concerned faculty/deptt./college for the grant of Financial Assistance are sent to this office only once in an academic year in order to avoid double payment.

Incomplete applications are liable to be rejected without any reference.

Yours faithfully,

Deputy Registrar (Finance) - I

Encl : As above.

It was observed that more publicity should be given to the provisions under Vice Chancellor's Student fund.

The Committee after due deliberations and ascertaining the availability of funds under Vice-Chancellor's Student Fund unanimously recommended to fix the quantum of assistance for the year 2014-15 under various categories as detailed below:

1	Financial Assistance/Scholarship to BPL/PwD Students	Rs. 1 crore
2	Financial Assistance on Medical grounds	Rs. 2 lakhs
3	Financial Assistance for deserving students for Payment of hostel fees	Rs. 2 lakhs
4	Ex-gratia payment for accidental death/permanent disability	Rs. 6 lakhs
5	Financial Assistance for attending International Conference/Events	Rs. 50 lakhs

The amount under different heads may be reallocated keeping in view the priorities and requirements on a case-to-case basis.

After detailed discussion, following recommendations for the revision of the rules/guidelines to be followed for availing financial assistance out of Vice-Chancellor's Student Fund in the above mentioned categories are made.

Recommendations are detailed below:

1. Financial Assistance/Scholarship to BPL & PwD Students.

- i. Financial assistance under this category is available to students who are studying in various courses in colleges and departments of Delhi University.
- ii. The students who have cleared the exams in an academic year promoted to next academic year will be granted assistance.
- iii. Such students must belong to families holding BPL (with Ration Card issued by Govt.)
- iv. PwD students who apply will be considered for support irrespective of income limit.
- v. The quantum of assistance to be given to such students will be Rs. 4000/- P.A for each academic year.
- vi. Applications may be invited through Delhi University website from all colleges and departments at the start of the session to ensure maximum benefit/participation to students. All applications must be routed through the Principal/ HoD of the concerned College/Department with their recommendation.

2. Financial Assistance on Medical grounds

- i. The University of Delhi is extending financial assistance on medical grounds to overcome the hardship of students who are admitted to hospital or undergoing treatment in hospital either due to accident or some other ailments and cannot afford to pay the hospital fees/dues.
